ANNOUNCEMENTS

President Tina reported receiving a $5,000 check from Rotary Treasurer Paul Thornfeldt from the auction. ☞ Four Red Sox tickets behind first base are available for an Oct. 3 game vs. the Yankees. Directors decided to keep the raffle within the club at $25 per ticket with a maximum of 100 tickets. ☞ Directors also discussed the banquet, which Tina had originally wanted Sept. 9. Herb Strauss generously offered Papoose Pond at cost, but the date is too soon to take care of the Charlie Goodspeed Award, order plaques and notify incoming Lt. Gov. to include in her schedule. Papoose already booked for 9/23 so Norway CC suggested.

HAPPY/SAD $$$

Mary Ann Brown - She's back after a great vacation week in Rockland plus another dollar because "it's so nice to see Elliott."

Diana McLaughlin - Several $$$: Also back from vacation, she and Willy celebrated 27 years of marriage, Dillon will be a senior at UNH and she and Garrett are headed to Middle School Orientation (and out the door they went).

Sarah Glynn - Happy that former Gov, Paul Bernard finally found a job, happy to see Elliott (who has been working as an intern in her law office) and "Garrett must be the hardest working kid I've ever seen."

Phil Corneliusen - Sad dollar for leaving the 50-50 bag in his truck. He apparently was invited to clean up after a recent party but was not invited to the party itself. When he got there, he found a smoldering campfire and a shattered picnic table. For details, ask President Tina.

John Cox - Sad that son's all-star team has been eliminated but 13 happy dollars for anniversary and "things are still going well."

Stuart Cummings - Said he got away with only 50 cents last time (murmurs from the audience) but put in a dollar because "someone stole my badge." He offered to pay another $1 if he discovers it at home. (A short time later Sec. Diana found it in the badge box.)

Kathy Laplante - Had a great vacation on Cape Cod. Meanwhile, the saga in Harrison continues with the resignation of the town manager, who is moving to Arizona. She's only been in the 3-year selectman's job for two months... Not sure anyone can be enticed to serve in either capacity. Meanwhile, her granddaughter has started driving.

Tina Croteau - Happy dollar for a great vacation. The picnic table incident was her husband's fault...

Elliott Munn - Just completed his third season at the Seeds of Peace camp in Otisfield. It was fabulous weather compared to the last two and there were a lot of happy campers - and not as many winter hats and down coats.

SPEAKER

Pastor Leslie Foley of the Second Congregational Church spoke to us about "Collaboration & Collectiveness." She urged us to move beyond who we are and think about other people. The Florida native became involved in the ministry because she vowed service to others. "I don't want to know how you came to be here or what you do, I want to know if you will stand in the center of the fire with me and not shrink back." Thanks to Leslie for sharing with us.
