ANNOUNCEMENTS

Ted Morton reminded us that the Senior Picnic is set for Range Pond Tuesday morning. The usual crew has signed up but more help is needed. Show up at 9:30 a.m. to set up the tent and should be done by 1 p.m. The crew also gets fed. ☞ Don Malpass says he has enough grills for the Project Graduation BBQ June 12. Participants should show up at 7 p.m. and should be done by midnight. ☞ Paul Thornfeldt reported that two Red Sox-Yankee tickets for a 1:35 p.m. Oct. 3 game will be raffled off to benefit Beth's House. There will be 500 tickets at $10 each for the seats on the first base side of Fenway. The package also includes a hotel room. ☞ All solicitations for the auction must be done by June 30 so they can be included in the Advertiser ad. Phil Corneliusen reported that there is half a container to go and we should be making contingency plans for storage. Tina reminded us that the day of the auction is always chaotic and 4-member teams from each club will be in charge of the move, set-up and selection. The focus will be on higher quality items in the auction with the rest going into the Flea Market. Gift certificates will be handled through a ticket auction - details coming. Bob Bizier said he is working to get additional cars. Gene Benner has already donated one. The food will consist of hot dogs, maybe French Fries and a flotilla of crock pots filled with chili. Even more details to follow, including advice from the New England power grid...

We have no meeting place yet for July 29. Anyone have any suggestions?

KIWANIS HAPPY/SAD $$$

Mary Ann Brown - Attended granddaughter Morgan's last softball game. Team ended the season only winning three games but she was a star. Grandson Phoenix won the Louis Armstrong Award at Oxford Hills and was named favorite band member.

Herb Adams - Happy dollars for the Red Sox and Bob Bizier return from Florida. Also for a bulletin editor who puts the weekly newsletter online. "It really meant a lot" over the winter, especially seeing the photos of friends, club members and the activities.

Bob Bizier - Again happy to be back and noted that the club he visits in Florida has a bulletin editor "who does almost as good a job as Bill Haynes."

Chris Longley - Sad dollar for Sarah Glynn because it was the first joint meeting she had missed. Happy dollar because Sarah shares.

Maureen Howard - Happy for the joint meeting and "we really should do this more often."

Tina Croteau - The 14-2 Vikings headed to playoffs Thursday. Senior Matt Verrier was named the Gatorade Maine Baseball Player of the Year recognizing academic as well as athletic excellence. This is the first time an OH player has won the award.

Bill Haynes - Thanked Bob Bizier for his kind remarks but figured he told the Florida bulletin editor the same thing. Applauded Rotary for its exceptional singing ability led by 1967 classmate Dan Allen. Admitted that as singers, Kiwanians are "just awful."

Joe Bumbaca - "Things are going really good," with Beth's House construction. Work is proceeding on the driveway, foundation and gathering of materials on the 3.8 acre piece of land on the Porter Road in West Paris. The house will be a 28- by 50-foot ranch which will be completed by cold weather.

Phil Corneliusen - Grandson, 10, got to be a bat boy at a Sea Dogs game. He commented afterwards: "Mom, you know those guys swearing a lot."

ROTARY HAPPY/SAD $$$

Dan Allen - Very proud of the way both clubs are able to work together for the betterment of the Oxford Hills. There are few places where this kind of service club cooperation exists.

Patty Rice - Happy about both clubs getting together and for her 10th anniversary married to husband and fellow Rotarian, George. Added later that she was quite pleased to look at the head table and see all women.

Larry Jordan - The joint meeting a wonderful thing and happy to be part of it.

Dave Preble - Congratulations to the Oxford Hills baseball team with one of the best records in school history.
