BUILDERS BREAKFAST

We were treated to a PowerPoint presentation on the Builders year at breakfast in the Middle School library. The photographs included such events as Decorating holiday flower pots, Trick or Treating on Main Street, the Reading breakfast, entertaining seniors, Big Brother-Big Sister bowling and the KBCN news team (Kiwanis Builders Club News).

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The bike rodeo was successful but business tapered off late morning and we ended up closing a half hour early. It seems that Rotary forgot to send out notices to the elementary schools for the May Day Play Day/Rodeo event. We gave out about 40 helmets (100 last year) and the remainder went to the Masons. Efforts are being discussed to rejuvenate the event next year. Volunteers are needed with ideas and enthusiasm. Thanks to all who participated. It was a windy day and the rodeo signs kept blowing over. ☹ Don't forget to keep promoting donation of auction items. It will be here before you know it. ☹ Don Malpass will need grills and grillers for the June 12 Project Graduation BBQ. ☹ Ted Morton is looking for help with the senior picnic June 8 at Range Pond.

HAPPY/SAD $$$

Pearl Ivey - Happy about receiving her Master's Degree and is headed to South Africa soon.
Sarah Glynn - Happy dollar thanking the Builders.
Mary Ann Brown - Granddaughter Morgan was player of the week and the conference at Lake Region High School.
Diana McLaughlin - Happy her son has finished up his junior year in college.
Kathy Laplante - Two happy dollars for her husband's birthday and the Builders' breakfast.
Bill Stockwell - Happy/sad dollar because there were several photos of former club advisor Buddy Coffren in the PowerPoint but he isn't here to see them.

There were several happy dollars from Builders who all spoke too softly for most of us to hear what they said...

Paris Police Officer Hartley "Skip" Mowatt ran the rodeo again for us this year. In the center, event Chairman Karen Danforth fits a helmet as Phin Walker watches approvingly. At right, veteran helmet fitter Stuart Cummings was caught putting in an extra effort at his work while a skeptical youngster watched his progress.
