BANQUET

It was out with the old and in with the new at the American Legion Hall. For her first official installation, incoming Lt. Gov. Sharon Binette welcomed new officers and directors for the coming year while thanking those that have served for the past 12 months. With a deep sigh of relief, outgoing President Tina Croteau handed a gavel (Berlin, NH still has ours) to this year's President Becky Toothaker. We welcomed Maureen Howard as vice president and Cindy Hakala moved a year closer to the presidency. Her focus this year will be to head up the auction efforts as she oversees fund-raising for her year in 2012. Directors Bill Stockwell and Phin Walker stepped into their three-year positions and we said goodbye to Phil Corneliusen and Tina Ruhland. It also marked the end of a fabulous year for outgoing Lt. Gov. Sarah Glynn, who has done a fantastic job and brought in a new club during her tenure. Tina gave out Kiwanis aprons with names to those that helped her over the past year: Mary Ann Brown, Sarah Glynn, Becky Toothaker, Diana McLaughlin, Phil Corneliusen and Bill Haynes. We saw four new members inducted: Pearl Ivey and John Palmer of Mary Anna Palmer, Roy Gedat of Bill Haynes and Jean Millett of Juanita Smith. There were 14 perfect attendance awards given out: one year, Cindy Hakala and Mary Anna Palmer; two years, Becky Toothaker and Maureen Howard; four years, Phil Corneliusen; five years, Chris Longley; seven years, Diana McLaughlin, Mary Ann Brown and Sarah Glynn; 10 years, Herb Strauss (with a worldwide flair); 11 years, Tina Croteau; 16 years, Bill Haynes; 18 years, Kathy Laplante; and 26 years, Bob Bizier. A Legion of Merit award went to Helga Thurston for reaching the five-year member mark. Legion of Honor awards went to Phil Corneliusen for 25 years and Stuart Cummings and Bill Haynes for 30 years (you can imagine the comments this one produced...). This year's Charlie Goodspeed Award winner presented by Mary Ann Brown was Maureen Howard, shown above. Congratulations!
